DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election without traverse of the Restriction

Requirement in the response of Aug. 13, 2003 is acknowledged. Claims

15-44 stand withdrawn from further consideration and the Requirement IS made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Arens et al, Kagoshima et al, of record, EPA 0 500

009 A1, cited by applicants, and the Morehouse, Jr. et al patent, newly cited.

4. Patentees all disclose a plurality of cured resinous cells in contact with at least one other cell.

Art Unit: 1711

5. Arens can either encapsulate liquids col. 2 lines 31-51, solids col. 3 lines 63 to col. 4 line12; Kagoshima et al and the EPA patent encapsulate either solid inorganic or organic foaming agents in their curable resinous polymer col. 4 lines16-29 of the US patent; and Morehouse Jr. can both encapsulate volatile liquid foaming agents in resinous microspheres or after the foaming agents are heated to foam the microspheres said microspheres are hollow.

6. Since all the resins employed are curable and in col. 18 lines 25-28 Morehouse Jr. et al can use cross linking di-unsaturated monomers in formulating the coating of their microspheres they too have cured resinous hollow and liquid microspheres.

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

- 1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
- 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
- 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
- 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
